A FEW WORDS FROM YOUR PRESIDENT...

Welcome to our 12th Annual C4 Convention! Time does go fast! It seems like just last year that I was lot viewing for the Griffee Sale at our first C4 Convention. This will also be the 12th consecutive Convention that I've attended. My year seems to revolve around C4 Conventions! If you're reading this, then you've made the trek to Boston sacrificing time and money to attend. I'm sure you won't regret it!

Member volunteers have organized educational events, exhibits and, social times. Dealers specializing in Colonial Coins have come from all over the country to display their wares to you. M&G Auctions has put together another classic auction with their usual first class catalog. It's all here for you. Enjoy yourself, meet others with similar interests and HAVE FUN!!!

This year was an election year for C4 Officer positions. Again, I must assume that the membership in general is happy (ecstatic) with the performance of the existing officers because there was only one nomination tendered this election. For Region 4, Ed Sarrafian accepted the nomination to run for the Regional VP position. The current Region 4 VP is Dan Freidus and he has decided not to run again. Dan has served as VP for Region 4 for as long as I can remember, in addition to being C4 Newsletter editor for a season, and an integral part of many of C4's behind the scene operations. Thank you, Dan, for your years of service and dedication to our organization and the hobby in general! We welcome Ed to the Board and he'll be officially installed at the Annual Business Meeting on Saturday. I look forward to serving with him! With no officer positions being contested, the slate will be installed for a two-year term on Saturday.

I, along with other officers & members, will be available, at times, to all at the C4 Table. If this is your first convention, please locate me and introduce yourself. The officers & volunteers are here to help make this an enjoyable time for everyone. If there's anything we can help with, don't hesitate to ask.

I generally don't make a commercial announcement to promote a C4 dealer, but I strongly recommend that in addition to all the coin dealers you patronize... stop by Charles Davis' tables. He is the only C4 Member Numismatic Literature Dealer and can make recommendations with respect to the books that will best help you enjoy your area of the hobby. In addition to the coins you'll be bringing home with you, bring home a book to add to your library.

Have Fun!
Ray Williams

Someone we'll be missing again this year is Bob Rhue. Although circumstances did not allow him to attend this year, he wanted to support C4 and the convention. Bob has once again generously volunteered (and I quickly accepted) to donate the funds to produce this C4 Convention program.

Members like Bob are examples of some of the behind the scenes people that keep C4 efficient and fun!

C4's Focus and Purpose

The Colonial Coin Collectors Club (C4) was founded in 1993 to provide a forum for collectors of numismatic material related to the Early American era. This involves coins, tokens, currency, and medals. The exact time frame encompassed by colonial numismatics is open to debate, but is generally accepted to include the complete pre-federal period as well as some issues of the 1790's. The early George Washington coins, tokens and medals are considered colonial items by most, and some of these date to the first half of the nineteenth century.

The club provides a forum for people interested in this period. The aims of the club are:

- 1- To increase the public's knowledge about colonial numismatics through meetings, conventions and its newsletter.
- 2- To promote the study of colonial numismatics and to help disseminate this information.
- 3- To cultivate fraternal collector relations.

For these purposes, the club will hold several meetings during the year in conjunction with major numismatic shows. The club has also established a colonial reference library and a colonial coin photo file. In addition, the C4 Newsletter is published quarterly.
